

Job Announcement
Passport to Independence Coach
Autism Integrated Services-Santa Rosa

Contact: Kaela Talafili @ 6760 or ktalafili@becomingindependent.org

Closing Date: March 25, 2016

Internal Applicants must complete an "Internal Application"

Becoming Independent's Passport to Independence Coach supports young adults and adults with autism spectrum disorder or autism-like characteristics. Passport Coaches support individual growth in a fun, tech savvy environment as well as out in the community through: community exploration, volunteerism and employment.

The Passport Coach is supervised by the Passport to Independence Service Manager. Position is non-exempt.

Wages: $15.50-$16.00/hour

Description

A Day in the Life of a Passport Instructor may look similar to this:

- Implementing Passport to Independence specialized curriculum in a classroom-like setting
- Supporting individuals in meeting their personal goals and objectives
- Work with and learn from Board Certified Behavior Analyst, Speech Language Pathologist and Occupational Therapist consultants to help create and build personal development plans
- Foster and maintain relationships with individuals, families, external agencies and the community.
- Maintain, write and submit progress reports and data on individual progress.
- Attend exciting and field relatable trainings and meetings.
- Transport and support individuals with community application, volunteerism and/or employment.

Qualifications

- You enjoy teaching and supporting others as they reach their goals. You are motivated and driven. You anticipate what is needed and take ownership for your actions.
- You enjoy finding creative ways to inspire and motivate others. You think on your feet. You like learning new things and learn them quickly.
- You enjoy problem solving. Staying organized. Setting priorities and managing time efficiently.
- You have a can-do, positive attitude! You are energized. You are dependable.
- You are comfortable communicating in writing, over the phone and in person.

Education and Experience

- High School Diploma or GED, BA in Special Education, Psychology, related field, preferred.
- Minimum of two-year experience working with children and/or adults with autism spectrum disorder or educational equivalent.